EXPERIENCE

Research & Production Intern

Nov 2025 – Present

Tim Miller, The Bulwark | New Orleans, LA

- Pitch guests, topics, and takes for episodes, helping shape editorial direction for one of the most-listened-to political podcasts on the left.
- Work directly with Tim on episode prep, research, and creative calls on how to frame political conversations for a national audience.
- Identify influencers, podcasts, and online communities where Tim can promote his content and reach new audiences, drawing on close knowledge of the digital political landscape.

Digital Strategy Volunteer

Aug 2025 – Oct 2025

Helena Moreno for Mayor | New Orleans, LA

- Built out the campaign's reach with younger voters, advising on social content and channel choices that landed with Gen Z and college-aged audiences.
- Helped lead local creator outreach: identified New Orleans influencers and personalities aligned with the campaign and brought them into events and activations to expand the campaign's footprint.
- Contributed to a digital push that helped Moreno win the October 2025 New Orleans mayoral election outright.

Organizing Intern

May 2025 – Aug 2025

People Power and Light | Gramercy, LA

- Researched candidates, races, and local political dynamics across Louisiana's River Parishes, contributing to candidate pipeline work and informing voter outreach strategy in tough Gulf South territory.
- Wrote, edited, and field-tested phone-banking and canvassing scripts on environmental justice and civil rights, distilling policy priorities into persuasive, voter-ready language.
- Planned and executed community events that grew volunteer engagement and amplified resident voices in local advocacy.
